CITY CHARTER AND WATER PROJECTS ARE EXPLAINED

MASS MEETING IS HELD BY WEST GLENDALE LEAGUE TO HEAR DISCUSSION

Under the auspices of the West Glendale Progressive league, with Isabel Barrett, its president, presiding, a mass meeting was held in the auditorium of the Glendale Union High school last night and these matters of civic interest discussed:

1—Glendale's municipal water system, including its distributing mains, territory embraced, supply, future growth, and proposed financial policy relative to installation of service mains.

2—The purity of the municipality's water supply, what is being done to safeguard the health of the community by purification of the water, how the water compares with government requirements, what is to be expected this summer relative to the purity of water and what to do if the water should display signs of dirt or "rust."

3—The proposed city charter, especially its provisions regarding the powers of the city manager, the city planning sections, the portion relative to municipal ownership, that relating to defining and abating nuisances, the building and zoning sections and the provisions on initiative, referendum and recall, also the powers by which the charter itself may be amended.

Speakers were Dwight W. Stephenson, president of the Board of City Trustees; T. W. Watson, city manager; Dr. Carl Wilson, laboratory director of the Los Angeles water department and who is in the employ of the city of Glendale to maintain the purity of its water, and, finally, brief talks and questions came from many in the audience who sought further information on the issues to be presented to the voters of the city on March 29.

The civic center bonds were not touched upon, except when the city manager was asked whether he considered the water bonds more important than the civic center bonds. His answer was that all of the issues were of importance and that each stood upon its own merits, subject to the approval of the voters.

No Action Is Taken

No action, either endorsement or disapproval of any issue, was taken by the meeting, for, as President Barrett explained, it was not the purpose to act last night on the issues. Information only was sought, she said, so that, if the league deems necessary, action may be taken at a later date.

"We are seeking first hand information—facts and figures from those in a position to know," said President Barrett. "It is not our desire to take definite action tonight on any of the propositions. We want the evidence so that we can weigh it."

The meeting remained in session nearly three hours. The city manager illustrated his talk by means of lantern slides showing the water system as it now is and as it will be if the bonds are voted. Dr. Wilson spoke of what is being done to keep the water supply pure, giving facts and figures on which the work is being done. President Stephenson, with a marked copy of the city charter, explained the most important provisions as they appeared to him. All three speakers were thanked by President Barrett, on behalf of the league, for their appearance and information given.

During the course of the evening music was furnished by a phonograph, also by Miss Elizabeth Mottern, daughter of Rev. R. W. Mottern of this city, who gave two piano numbers, as well as playing for the singing by the audience of "America" and "The Star-Spangled Banner."

Miss Mottern's playing was appreciated, for she is a noted musician

Citizens Of South Glendale To Meet

A mass meeting of South Glendale citizens has been called for Saturday night at 7:45 o'clock in the old Tropico city hall auditorium above the branch library at the corner of Brand boulevard and Los Feliz Road.

Municipal issues will be discussed with Richardson D. White speaking for the park and civic center bonds; City Manager T. W. Watson urging the passage of the $100,000 water and $26,000 warehouse issue and Dwight W. Stephenson, president of the Board of City Trustees, explaining the proposed freeholders' charter.

The meeting will be held under the joint auspices of the city of Glendale and the Chamber of Commerce.

Fightin' Fool Of Dog Picks Three Fights 1 Day, Wins, Then—

Dogs is dogs when it comes to fights.

Ask Austin Teasley, 1001 Melrose avenue, if that isn't so.

For Austin is a lad who takes great pride in his dog what's a "fightin' fool."

On Tuesday it had three scraps and won!

Then as the young master wandered past the Casa Verdugo branch postoffice at North Central avenue and Stocker streets, a big Collie mixed it with his pet.

Soon a dozen boys were lining up on sides and backing their favorites.

Blood spattered the sidewalk as round after round went by. It looked like a finish affair.

Finally the Collie grabbed one of its adversary's ears. There was a crunch that sounded like a sausage machine. And a yelp that equaled a small town's fire siren.

The fight was off. Austin started home, mumbling the sportsman's phrase:

"Well, you can't win all the time."

Whiskers On Indian

Ever see an Indian with whiskers?

Unusual, you say?

So did Mrs. May E. Myton in charge of branch postal station No. 14 at 104 South Glendale yesterday afternoon as she was counting up the small change preparatory to making a report.

For she had discovered a buffalo nickel with the Indian head decorated by some ingenious silversmith.

The feathers had been changed to resemble a derby hat and on the chin there was a full crop of whiskers engraved.

FORUM DINNER ON THURSDAY NIGHT, HIGH SCHOOL

ENTIRE MEMBERSHIP C. OF C. INVITED TO ATTEND AND HEAR LOCAL TOPICS

Thursday night at 6:30 o'clock at the Glendale Union High school cafeteria the forum of the Chamber of Commerce will enjoy a dollar dinner and hear community topics discussed.

Speakers are being arranged for today and by tomorrow it is expected to announce the most attractive program offered by the reorganized civic body.

Every member of the Chamber of Commerce—remember that—every member is entitled to attend the forum meetings. That is the only way that an expression of public opinion can be obtained.

For those members who are employed in Los Angeles, one forum dinner meeting a month is held at night. This is it.

"Here's your chance to get acquainted," says Secretary James M. Rhoades, asking that all who intend being present to make their reservations for this big banquet by mail or telephone.

Mr. Schultz reports that the unemployment situation in Denver is acute, it being estimated there that 1000 men are out of work, a condition which has not existed for years.

OUTLINE PLANS FOR C. OF C. BUILDING IN THIS CITY

PROJECT INVESTIGATED BUT NO ACTION TAKEN; SEARCH MADE FOR QUARTERS

Tentative plans were considered yesterday by the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce for a building of their own.

According to J. G. Huntley, who investigated the matter, a $20,000 building site can be obtained opposite The Glendale Evening News office on Brand boulevard, near Harvard street, at $100 monthly rental.

On this it is proposed to put a $15,000 or $18,000 structure with stores and offices for rental purposes in addition to a Chamber of Commerce headquarters and a banquet hall above. From the income from the stores and offices and banquet hall, it is considered that a building corporation would not only be profitable, but it would be possible to purchase the lot as years went by.

Lease May Be Taken

According to Mr. Huntley, the total possible income is $450 and costs would be $290, or a profit of $150 monthly to be paid in dividends or used to buy the site.

The proposition seemed to meet with the favor of all as the logical settlement for the matter of quarters. However, the committee on the subject was instructed that if it could rent the new Cole & Damerell block on Broadway at $75 a month to lease the room for a year.

At the noon luncheon yesterday, the California Hydro-Stone company, which plans to locate a factory here, was given further hearing by the board, the industrial committee's report without recommendation was accepted, and the matter laid over for one week.

Free auto parking grounds for tourists was discussed among many other things, then referred to committees.

Banks camp, Sons of Veterans, were holding their meeting, and witnessed the initiation of three new members. Owen J. Sherrick, W. S. Richardson and H. W. Hall. After that session closed a social hour was enjoyed. Music for dancing was furnished by the Bruck orchestra of South Glendale and refreshments were served.

NOTIFIES RAILROAD EMPLOYES OF WAGE REDUCTION

CHICAGO, March 23.—Employes of the Pennsylvania lines today were served notice that their wages must be slashed. While W. W. Atterbury, vice president of the Pennsylvania, was urging before the United States railroad labor board that national shop agreements be abrogated, President Samuel Rea served the wage cut ultimatum on employes. Rea's notice was conciliatory in tone, but expressed determination of the company to cut wages. No percentage of decrease was named. The notice said that 70 cents out of every dollar taken in by the road was paid out in wages, which created a deficit when other expenses were met. It is expected that other roads will follow the leadership of the Pennsylvania. Railroad unionists were not yet prepared to state what action they will take.

Former Resident Of City Much Surprised

N. C. Kelly, a former resident of 1117 Melrose avenue who moved to Corona several years ago, was a visitor in Glendale yesterday and expressed surprise and pleasure at the rapid growth of the city in which he was engaged in the real estate business.

"I thought when I left Glendale that it was due to experience another five years of depression. But to look at the streets today with the many new business structures and hundreds of automobiles lining the curbs, I can only say that many are overlooking opportunities in not investing here. I remember the day when one lone 'flivver' used to haul people about Glendale."

Mr. Kelly, in addition to attending to ranch property near Corona, is the farm editor of the Daily Independent in that city.

LOCAL BODY SEEKS TO BRING LARGE FACTORY HERE

BOARD OF DIRECTORS FOR C. OF C. GIVES SUPPORT TO COMMITTEEMEN

W. E. Hewitt, chairman of the industrial committee of the Chamber of Commerce, has called a luncheon meeting for tomorrow at the White Inn, 12 o'clock, sharp, for a further consideration of W. O. Bruess' $5,000,000 factory offer.

Throwing the support of the Chamber of Commerce behind the efforts of the industrial committee to cooperate with W. O. Bruess in bringing to Glendale great rubber manufacturing industries, the board of directors yesterday afternoon and evening gave several hours' consideration to the proposition presented them by the promoter.

Mr. Bruess, who was formerly connected with the Ohio State Rubber company, addressed the noonday luncheon of the directors and others, telling them that he was asking nothing in coming here, but he would like to find out how far the people of Glendale would go in supporting his projects, which include the construction of an automobile tire factory, a rubber reclaiming plant and a cotton mill.

It was made clear that Glendale could expect nothing from him other than the business it would derive through his enterprises bringing people to this community.

Site Declared Reasonable

It was learned that the particular site which interests him is located west of the Southern Pacific tracks in the city of Los Angeles and that the price of this property is now as reasonable as it ever will be. The tract comprises sixty-six acres and it may be that Glendale may be able to aid in securing this property, although nothing definite has been done along this line.

According to Mr. Bruess, his first factory will represent an investment of probably $5,000,000, and when he gets his other two plants going it will total $8,000,000 or more. His outline of the proposition follows closely the story exclusively told in The Glendale Evening News last Thursday.

Within fifteen months' time after the construction work starts, the factory will be operating. More than 100 executives—some $10,000 a year men will have to be imported—and from the 1500 first employed the force will increase to 3000, and as other industries are established he foresees a town as large as Glendale located along the Southern Pacific railroad between this city and Griffith Park.

Other Sites Offered

In speaking of sites offered him, Mr. Bruess made it plain that Burbank had offered twenty acres, that a large acreage was offered him in the Torrance tract near Inglewood and that Maywood wanted his industries, but the most essential thing, he said, is housing and employment.

"Here," he said, "I can get the typists and stenographers for my office, I can build my employees homes, and only seven miles away is all of the common labor I want. That is why I want Glendale. I am asking you nothing—only seeing what sort of a spirit you meet me with—and I may come here without you spending 50 cents."

After going into the question of tire manufacture and profits and the goods which can be made from reclaimed rubber for which there is no market now west of Akron, Ohio, Mr. Bruess was the center of an interesting discussion in which Jesse Smith, H. M. Butts, Arthur Campbell, J. G. Huntley, H. M. Miller and others took part.

C. C. Cooper, president of the chamber, presided over both the noon and night meetings.

Trees Are Planted For Grand View

Trees have been planted by Grand View district residents on Vine avenue, Sixth street and Winchester avenue, and a gopher extermination campaign is now under way, according to J. H. Randall, chairman of the Grand View Improvement association who was conferring with City Manager T. W. Watson this morning.

More lights, walks and curbs for Vine avenue and other improvements are to be sought of the Glendale city trustees at their meeting tomorrow night as the Grand View people are decided upon voting $30,000 bonds for water mains and other development work on April 26, which will make their section of the city one of the most desirable.

It is proposed to change the name of Vine avenue to Griffith Park boulevard, according to Mr. Randall, because of another street in the city with the same name.

seemed to be of the opinion that the thing to do was to build the clubhouse and the money to pay for it would be secured in some way. Money for their clubhouse was raised in every possible way.

The program was then presented by the members of the parliamentary law section. It was a burlesque skit called "The Meeting of the Hopeville Board," supposed to be a take-off on a trustees' meeting, during which requests for permits were read from several artists who desired to give performances in the town of Hopeville. The members of the board decided in every case that it would be necessary for the applicant to appear in person and perform before them. The page then ushered them in one by one.

Cast of Characters

The characters appearing in the skit, which was very cleverly written by Miss Eva Daniels, were as follows:

Mayor Wise, Mrs. Harry Greenwalt.
City Attorney Knowall, Miss Eva Daniels.
Clerk Scribble, Mrs. W. L. Andrews.
Trustee Berdie Lovelight, Mrs. Homer Lockwood.
Trustee Pickell, Mrs. W. H. Verity.
Trustee Jazz, Mrs. R. D. Angelica.
Trustee Grafter, Mrs. Benjamin Holbrook.
Trustee Smart, Mrs. J. T. Crampton.
Trustee Pep, Mrs. C. A. Brandstater.
Shada Pastel, a darkey who took much interest in the proceedings of the board meeting, Mrs. A. H. Montgomery.
Scene: City Hall, Hopeville.

Madrigal Quartet, Mrs. C. A. Parker, Mrs. Frank Arnold, Mrs. A. M. Draper and Mrs. Helena Graham Cole.
Miss Gertrude Champlain, accompanist.

Congratulations Extended

These special numbers, as well as the trustees' meeting, received hearty and continued applause. On behalf of the trustees of Hopeville and also the members of the section, Mayor Wise, Mrs. Harry Greenwalt, who is also curator of the parliamentary section, was presented with a beautiful bouquet of red sweet peas and hyacinths. Miss Daniels, who wrote the skit, was then called forward and received hearty applause.

The hospitality committee, Mrs. L. W. Sinclair, chairman; Mrs. A. D. McCoy, Mrs. R. P. Isitt, Mrs. J. W. Stauffacher, Mrs. Louise M. Richardson, Mrs. R. J. Phillips, Mrs. M. P. Harrison, Mrs. E. M. Lee, Mrs. Frank Dow, Miss Lily Fielding, Mrs. G. H. Rowe, Mrs. J. C. Dunn, Mrs. B. D. Balthis, Mrs. P. E. Cory, Mrs. W. Tupper and Mrs. W. W. Hamilton, then served ice-cream, cake and coffee.

Much credit is due Mrs. Walter W. Jones, chairman of the decoration committee, and her assistants, Mrs. Colin Cable, Mrs. A. H. Montgomery, Mrs. R. C. Horner, Mrs. W. E. Halstead, Mrs. Chester Kling, Mrs. Bert Ward and Mrs. Marguerita L. Angelica, for the artistic way in which the temple was decorated. At each window was a window box filled with iris, daffodils, roses and bridal wreath and hanging baskets filled with spring flowers were hung from the ceiling. The foot of the stage was banked with potted ferns, the effect of the whole decorating scheme being very spring-like and truly beautiful.

Censure Committee To Prevent Fakers From Operating Here

Beware, fakers, beware.

The Glendale Chamber of Commerce has appointed a censure committee.

It will investigate all stock selling and advertising schemes brought to the attention of chamber members.

Here is how the protective force works:

A corporation wishes to come into Glendale to sell stock.

They approach Mr. Blank who is a member of the Chamber of Commerce. He asks the salesmen if they have an indorsement from that organization. They have not. "Go get one," is Mr. Blank's cue.

The salesmen first lay their proposition before Secretary Rhoades. He puts it up to the censure committee, composed of three business men with offices close to Broadway and Brand. If they are able to see the merit of the stock scheme, it is given a favorable letter. If not—

As far as Chamber of Commerce members are concerned there is nothing to be sold them otherwise, according to Secretary James M. Rhoades. The same idea is followed out in dealing with outside advertising schemes which will take money from the city.

Veil Is Taken Off Of Stillman Divorce

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., March 23.—The veil of attempted secrecy was ripped from the Stillman divorce scandal today.

Delancy Nicoll, attorney for James A. Stillman, millionaire financier, openly charged in Justice Morschauser's court that Mrs. Stillman "took as her lover an Indian guide and had a child by him."

He declared six witnesses already had testified to this effect in secret hearings.

Charges which have been merely whispered were shouted aloud in court in the presence of an eager swarm of spectators, as the lawyers wrangled over the question at issue, whether Stillman should be ordered to pay Mrs. Stillman $10,000 a month alimony pending trial of the case. This application finally was taken under advisement by Morschauser. The judge was informed that Stillman's income last year was $536,000.

Although Stillman's charge of his wife's alleged intimacy with Fred Beauvais was openly made, Mrs. Stillman's attorneys failed to bring in the name of Mrs. Florence H. Leeds, who has been mentioned by her. The only reference to Mrs. Stillman's counter charges was made by Nicholl himself when he reviewed the case, stating incidentally, "and now Mrs. Stillman makes charges":

John E. Mack of Poughkeepsie, guardian of the interests of Guy Stillman, the alleged illegitimate child, declared that the baby's legitimacy could not be questioned.

Testimony taken before the referee shows that no other man except James A. Stillman is the father of Guy Stillman. The referee ordered other testimony attacking the legitimacy of the child, Guy, stricken from the record. Nothing is recorded that impugns the legitimacy of the child."

Abraham Levy, one of Mrs. Stillman's lawyers, said:

"Mrs. Stillman fights not only for the life of herself but for the life of her child. She will prove her denial of all the allegations of infidelity made by Mr. Stillman."

S. P. To Have Agent In Glendale, Belief

The Salt Lake route and Pacific Electric freight rates were discussed, but an investigation of that subject was left to the committee on railroads and public utilities.

M. of each day and six o'clock A. M. of the following day; except hauling such material as is used in the construction and reconstruction of such railways.

That said the grantee of said franchise and its assigns, shall use good material in the construction of said road, and said road shall be built in a good and workmanlike manner, and that said grantee and its assigns, shall, at its or their own cost and expense, oil and re-oil, pave or macadamize the said road between the rails, between the tracks and for two (2) feet on each side thereof, with the same material used by the City, and under the same specifications and in the same manner as upon the streets over which said roads are respectively, and shall keep the same constantly so paved or macadamized and in repair flush with said streets, and provided with suitable crossings, and shall make the roadbed conform at all times to the established grade of said streets; provided, however, that where any of the above named streets have been graded or otherwise improved prior to the granting of said franchise, said roadbed and rails shall conform to and be flush with the surface of said graded or otherwise improved street or streets, whether such surface be above or below the official grade of said street or streets, and on all other street or streets, the said roadbed and rails shall conform to such official grade as aforesaid.

In case the said grantee and its assigns, shall fail to comply with the instructions given for said repairs for ten days after service of notice thereof upon the superintendent or manager of said grantee, then the Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale, may, with suitable assistance, enter upon said railway, or any portion thereof, and do the work, and furnish the proper material, and keep an itemized account of the cost thereof, which said grantee and its assigns, by the acceptance of this franchise, agrees to pay immediately to the Treasurer of the City of Glendale upon the presentation of the account to the superintendent or manager of said railway.

Provided further, that cars shall be run over the road constructed under said franchise every day, unless prevented by the elements, riots, strikes or unavoidable causes; provided, also, that cars shall be run over and upon said road at intervals of not more than one (1) hour from seven o'clock A. M. until ten (10) o'clock P. M. of each day, and as much oftener as may be necessary to properly accommodate all persons who apply for transportation over said road, except in times of extraordinary and unforeseen amounts of travel, and provided that the Board of Trustees may authorize a less number of trips if the amount of travel does not warrant the above number of trips, and provided further, that said grantee, and its assigns, shall have the right to excavate and remove portions of said streets necessary to properly construct said road, and to erect needful apparatus, boilers, engines and other appliances to properly equip and run said road; provided further, that the City of Glendale in granting said franchise, expressly reserves the right to pave, macadamize, renew or sewer any of said streets, or to lay gas, water or other pipes therein, said work to be done so as to injure said road as little as possible.

It is further provided that said grantee and its assigns, shall construct all necessary flumes and culverts for the free passage of water under the tracks of said Railway whenever and wherever necessary, and that all of such flumes and culverts shall be constructed in accordance with the plans and specifications approved by the City Engineer and wherever required by said City of Glendale.

That the said grantee and its assigns, shall and will, at all times upon and after the completion of said road, during the operation of the same, and without extra charge, issue and receive from passengers going in one direction, transfers good for one continuous passage over and upon any and every other line and lines or any other road or roads to any points within the said City, which said grantee and its assigns, does now or may hereafter own, control, operate or have a controlling interest in; and provided, as a further condition, that said grantee, and its assigns, shall and will at all times as aforesaid, issue or cause to be issued to said passengers without extra charge, a similar transfer from any and every line or lines which said grantee and its assigns, does now or may hereafter own, control, operate or have a controlling interest in, within said City of Glendale, as aforesaid, to, over and upon the road operated and maintained under said franchise within the city limits of the City of Glendale; and provided further, that such transfers shall be given and received as above provided over and upon all such roads within the city limits of the City of Glendale, whether operated under a franchise granted by said City, or over and upon private right of ways owned or occupied by said roads within the city limits of the City of Glendale.

That the rates of fare to be charged by the grantee shall not exceed the rates fixed by the Body, Board or Commission having authority to fix such rates.

The said grantee and its assigns, shall carry free on said cars, the City Marshall or Chief of Police and deputies, and all regular police officers and firemen of said city, when on duty, and letter carriers, subject at all times to the rules of the road.

That all poles used in the construction and operation of said electric road, shall be placed within the curb line of the streets herein designated as officially established by the Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale, and the outer edge of the poles shall in all cases be set as near the inner edge of the curb as practicable, when not otherwise directed by said Board of Trustees, and the wires suspended from said poles, shall not at any point be less than twenty-two (22) feet above the top of the rail. All poles shall be of tubular steel or of suitable wood, of a size and kind such as are ordinarily used for similar purposes in the State of California, and shall at all times be kept free from rust and painted in a uniform color; that wherever said railway is double tracked, then the tracks shall be placed thirteen (13) feet from the center line to center line, and in case of a single track shall be located as directed by the Board of City Trustees of the City of Glendale.

That any neglect, failure or refusal to comply with any of the conditions of said franchise, after thirty days' notice given by the Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale, shall thereupon immediately, ipso facto, effect a forfeiture thereof, and the said City, by its Board of Trustees, may thereupon declare said franchise forfeited, and may exclude said grantee, or its assigns, from further use of the streets of said City under said franchise, and said grantee or its assigns, shall thereupon and immediately, surrender all rights in and to the same, and the said franchise shall be deemed and shall remain null, void and of no effect.

NOTICE IS ALSO HEREBY GIVEN, that sealed bids in writing will be received for said franchise by the City Clerk of said City of Glendale up to eight o'clock P. M. of the 14th day of April, 1921. At the day and hour last mentioned, the City Clerk will, in open session, examine and publicly declare the same, and each bid shall be accompanied by a cash deposit of the amount of the bid, or a certified check for said amount, payable to the City Treasurer of the City of Glendale, certified to by some responsible Bank as a guarantee of good faith by the bidder; provided, however, that if in the judgment of the Board of Trustees, no adequate or responsible bid has been made, the Board of Trustees may withdraw said franchise from sale, or advertise for new bids. Mass Meeting at High School Discusses Important Pending Municipal Projects and is to appear at the last concert of the Ambassador soloists' series to be given in Los Angeles on March 31.

MASS MEETING IS HELD BY WEST GLENDALE LEAGUE TO HEAR DISCUSSION

Meeting Called to Order

After several numbers on the phonograph, the meeting was called to order by President Barrett, who stated the purposes of the gathering and then called upon City Manager Watson to speak on the water system and the proposed $100,000 bond issue declared necessary for it.

Three maps of the system, made into lantern slides, were used by the city manager to illustrate his points, the maps having been prepared by City Engineer Hill.

Features from the city manager's talk are given elsewhere in The Evening News.

Mr. Watson was followed by Dr. Wilson, who declared that the city had two sources of water supply, one being the surface water in Verdugo canyon and the other from wells. He declared the latter was exceptionally good. He said the former was, at times, subject to contamination.

Tells of Daily Tests

Dr. Wilson told of the daily tests being taken to preserve the purity of the water, saying that the system followed was that used in the largest cities of the United States and Europe. He paid a tribute to Glendale's officials in taking safeguards to prevent a possible epidemic and asserted that if proper caution was used the city need never fear wholesale disease as the result of an impure water supply. Tests show Glendale has good water, he said.

The speaker said the city was using about 2,500,000 gallons of water daily. He said the city was far ahead of other communities of a like size in safeguarding its sources of supply and, finally, in speaking of the approaching summer season when water might have more impurities, urged that if people noticed the water was dirty or "rusty" that the city officials be notified and at once steps would be taken to flush the pipes in that particular neighborhood.

President Stephenson followed Dr. Wilson and, taking the "high spots" in the charter, as he saw them, argued for its adoption by the voters, pointing out that if, after it was in force, changes were found desirable, amendments could be made.

A resume of President Stephenson's remarks appear elsewhere in The Evening News, together with some of the questions asked of him.

President Barrett announced that the membership rolls of the league were still open, the dues being $1 a year, and a number joined last night, the names being received by F. A. Clarke, a vice president of the league, and Eugene Wilson, also an official and one of the organizers.

The meeting then adjourned and, it is probable, another session will be held, if found practicable, just before election day. Or, it was stated, the league may decide to use the newspapers in any announcements it may have to make regarding the issues to be submitted to the voters.

The next regular meeting night of the league is April 5.

T. W. WATSON GIVES REASONS WHY PEOPLE ARE ASKED TO FIX POLICY

Future Growth of Glendale Depends Upon Methods Used in Financing Water Department

Aided by lantern slides that showed the city of Glendale's water system, as at present and as it will be if the $100,000 bond issue carries on March 29, T. W. Watson, city manager, at the mass meeting in the Glendale Union High school last night, under the auspices of the West Glendale Progressive league, discussed the municipal water problem, plans for its development, distribution and for financing investments considered necessary.

"The Board of City Trustees," said Mr. Watson, during his talk, "have decided to place before the voters of the city on March 29 two propositions, either one of which sets forth a practical plan for financing the cost of service mains. One is that these service mains be paid for from the proceeds of general municipal bonds that will be supported by taxation on all the assessable property of the city. The other is that these service mains shall be paid for by direct assessment on the property benefited thereby.

Propositions Submitted

"It is not our purpose here to discuss the relative merits of these two plans. I believe it proper, however, to submit the following:

"1. The bond plan will require a general city election whenever money is needed for service mains. Should an election for this purpose fail, the sections needing service mains at that time would suffer. On the other hand, under the frontage plan those needing service mains would have the matter in their own hands, inasmuch as proceedings could be taken for the laying of a service main on a block or more of any street whenever a majority of the owners of frontage thereon would petition therefor.

"2. The bond plan would make the cost of service mains a tax on the entire city; therefore the plan would have to extend to all parts of the city, including the undeveloped portions. This would in time involve a large outstanding debt for this purpose that would reduce the city's bonding capacity for other general improvements.

"3. The frontage plan is really a local bond plan after all, inasmuch as the cost of improvements installed under this plan may be spread over a term of ten years, one-tenth of the principal and the interest payable each year. At present prices the cost of a four-inch service main laid in front of a fifty-foot lot could be taken care of by ten annual payments that would average about $4 per year.

City Can Then Go Ahead

"After the people of Glendale have determined which of these policies they will adopt, and measures have been taken under whatever policy is adopted to provide the necessary funds, there will be no holding back on the part of the city in responding to those who request that new service mains be laid to replace the old or inadequate ones that now serve the larger portion of the city.

"As you look at the chart before you, realizing that the heavy black lines represent 246,000 lineal feet of service mains that will have to be replaced with a few years, you are apt to criticise those who may be responsible for this condition. You are apt to say why were not better pipes laid originally or why were not larger pipes laid in the beginning. Why do we have to 'junk,' as some may term it, such a large portion of our water distributing system? The city of Glendale is not responsible for this condition. These pipes were laid before the city took the systems over. Most of these pipes, however, have served fully as long as we have any reason to expect pipes of that kind to serve, and the replacing of them with new and in some instances larger pipes is but the natural process that maintains in all lines of city building. They have served for many years and have served well. They have served since the city has owned the plant for seven years and for many years before that and have furnished the people of the city with water at low rates.

Summary Is Given

"The foregoing may be summarized as follows:

"1. The area of Greater Glendale, all of which may be brought under its water service, contains 7600 acres.

"2. This area when fully developed will require an inch of water for every five acres or 1500 miner's inches.

"3. This water supply may be developed at three pumping stations, all of which are situated within the area to be served, namely, Verdugo canyon, capacity 300 miner's inches; San Fernando Road pumping site, capacity, when the three units have been installed 1000 inches; Magnolia avenue pumping site (reserve), 333 inches; total, 1633 inches or 133 inches more than necessary for the fullest development of the entire area.

Financed Out of Revenue

"4. General development works required to make this water available over the entire area can be financed out of the revenues of the water business by the issuance of municipal bonds to cover the cost thereof, principal and interest on these bonds to be paid from the revenues of the water business, provided that the trunk lines and distribution mains to be laid in undeveloped territory be financed by bonds supported by tax levy in the districts served thereby until the water business therein has developed to the extent that the revenues therefrom will support these bonds.

"5. An outstanding bonded indebtedness of approximately $600,000 will be required to finance general developments, reservoirs, trunk lines and distribution mains. This can be carried by the revenues of the water business on the basis stated above.

"6. The city has laid about three miles of four-inch cast iron service mains and has financed this investment out of the revenues of the water business.

"7. The entire system of service mains (pipes four inches or less in diameter) will have to be replaced during the next few years. This will require an expenditure of approximately $300,000.

"8. This is too large a sum to be financed from the revenues of the water business when we take into consideration the large amount stated before that will be carried by these revenues on account of general water development and distribution works.

"9. The board of trustees have submitted to the qualified electors of the city to be voted upon March 29 two policies for financing these investments, first by general bond issue, principal and interest payable by general tax levy; second, by direct charge on property fronting on streets in which service mains are laid. No. 2 is really a bond plan, also, in that bonds may be issued to run ten years under this plan.

"10. When the policy has been determined by the voters as to financing investments for service mains and measures taken to obtain funds thereunder for such investments, we may say that the water business, including all necessary developments therefor to serve the entire area of Greater Glendale, may expand automatically, as it were, as the development of the city requires.

"In conclusion it might be observed that Greater Glendale can be no larger than its water department is permitted to grow, and from the foregoing we are persuaded that Glendale's water business can be developed to keep pace with the growth of Greater Glendale."

LOCAL ASSESSMENT PROPOSITION IS CHOICE GIVEN

T. W. WATSON, AS TAXPAYER, FAVORS NO. 2 AS POLICY IN WATER FINANCES

When T. W. Watson, city manager, concluded his talk at the mass meeting in the Glendale union high school auditorium last night, held under the auspices of the West Glendale Progressive league, he was asked this question by F. A. Clarke, a resident of Oak street who, as head of the Oak Street Improvement association, is leading a movement to have a larger water service main installed in that section:

"As a citizen and a taxpayer, Mr. Watson, which policy do you favor that the Board of City Trustees adopt as the policy of the city in financing the cost of local service mains?"

Mr. Watson answered that he, as a taxpayer and not speaking as a city official, favored the policy of local assessment. He then explained that quicker action could be obtained if the matter of securing a service main was left entirely in the hands of the people most affected, rather than submit a bond issue to the entire city.

"But will the people on a street, people who have paid for service mains in other sections of the city, ever get together?" questioned Mr. Clarke. "Would not they argue that the whole city should pay?"

The city manager answered that the assessment plan was working in other cities and that those cities now operating under the bond issue plan would soon be forced to adopt the local assessment method.

"Yet the city is taking care of people who are coming into the city and building up new tracts, while those of us who have lived here for years with insufficient mains cannot get the city to give us adequate service," commented Mr. Clarke.

The city manager pointed out that the city has laid but about three miles of four-inch mains, while practically the entire system of service mains will have to be replaced within the next few years and, in his opinion, the work should be done by local assessments rather than by bond issues. He said the water department could not finance the work.

In order to permit the people of the city to say which plan they desire, the Board of City Trustees has decided to take a "straw vote" at the special election on March 29. The two propositions are:

No. 1—The cost of all local service mains hereafter installed in the City of Glendale, including all service mains not over 4 inches in diameter, and also where a distribution main larger than 4 inches in diameter is also used for a service main, a part of the cost of such distribution main equal to the cost of a 4-inch main in the same location shall be paid from the proceeds of general municipal bonds of the city of Glendale, and the city of Glendale, and the principal and interest of such bonds shall be paid by a tax levied on all property in said city.

No. 2—The cost of all local service mains hereafter installed in the city of Glendale, including all service mains not over 4 inches in diameter, and also where a distribution main larger than 4 inches in diameter is used also for a service main, a part of the cost of such distribution main equal to the cost of a 4-inch main in the same location shall be paid by local assessment on the property served by such mains.

Answering Mr. Clarke's question, Mr. Watson, as a taxpayer, is in favor of proposition No. 2 as it will appear on the ballot which will be handed to voters on March 29 to determine the financial policy to be adopted by the Board of City Trustees in the conduct of the water department.

Funeral Service For Mrs. Alda G. Tinning

Funeral services for Alda Graham Tinning, wife of the Rev. Louis Tinning, assistant pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Glendale, were held yesterday morning at 11 o'clock at the Jewel City Undertaking company's chapel, Rev. W. E. Edmonds and J. C. Pinkerton of Whittier, who is secretary of the State Church federation, officiating. Interment was at Forest Lawn cemetery. Although a comparative newcomer to the city Mrs. Tinning had made many friends since coming here from Los Angeles. Over 200 friends from Whittier, Los Angeles and Glendale were present at the services. Their sympathy and esteem were shown in the many beautiful floral tributes. Members of the board of deacons and the board of trustees of the church acted as bearers.

All needy residents of Muskegon, Mich., who are out of work are being given aid by the city. The city loans the funds, taking a note payable on demand without interest.

DWIGHT W. STEPHENSON TELLS REASONS FOR FAVORING CHARTER

Declares It Contains No 'Joker,' That It Gives City Home Rule and Can Be Amended

Dwight W. Stephenson, president of the Board of City Trustees, spoke in the auditorium of the Glendale union high school last night at a meeting held under the auspices of the West Glendale Progressive league. He discussed the proposed city charter which will be voted upon at the special election to be held March 29. According to his point of view:

1—The charter is well drawn, its provisions seem clear, the "city hall crowd," so called, had nothing to do with framing it, and many of its most severe critics have not, apparently, read the document.

2—Of the three possible forms of government—mayor and council, commission and managerial — the managerial is the most modern and best adapted to Glendale.

3—The charter can easily be amended if any of its provisions do not give general satisfaction, amended at the suggestion of the city council or by request of the people.

4—Under the charter any ordinance may be repealed and, too, the initiative, referendum and recall are operative, so that officials may be removed if not giving satisfaction.

5—The charter provides the city manager must be hired by the council. If he does not give satisfaction and following the policies of the council, he can be discharged. If he were elected by the people a recall election would be necessary to remove him.

6—The charter contains no "jokers." All the provisions are plain and it is a form of government that will give "home rule" to Glendale, whereas the city is now operating under a legislative act for cities of the sixth class that, if a change is desired, various other cities in the state must first agree to it.

In opening his remarks, President Stephenson declared that he felt at home among people of West Glendale for he recalled the recent fight made by the league against the opening of Commercial street and the fact that he had voted from the start against the proposed street opening.

"But before I take up the charter, I wish to say that Mr. Watson, our city manager, who has just spoken to you regarding the water system forgot one thing," said President Stephenson. "That is, your water system has not cost you one cent. The water system was purchased by bonds and all of it has been financed out of the departmental revenues. Further, our rates are from 15 per cent to 30 per cent lower than other cities. It is only now that you are about to be called upon for any expense and that expense is the installation of service mains."

Gives Charter's History

President Stephenson then gave an outline of the history of the charter about to be passed upon by the voters. He told how the city was operating under a legislative act for cities of the sixth class and declared that Glendale had long ago outgrown that sort of government.

He pointed out that the city officials had nothing to do with the framing of the charter—that the work had been done by fifteen citizens chosen by the people at the polls. The proposed charter, he said, had been printed in pamphlet form, as provided by law, and was on free distribution at the city hall.

"And the charter's most severe critics that I have talked to have admitted they have not read the document," the speaker commented.

Then, at President Stephenson's suggestion, copies of the charter were distributed among the audience and as he picked out what he termed the "high spots" in it, he discussed the charter and answered questions.

Question: Why Is a Mayor?

In discussing the three possible forms of government, President Stephenson, referring to a mayor and council, asked:

"Why is a mayor? He is an expensive and unnecessary luxury in this modern age. All he is good for is to dress up in a frock coat, ride in parades and look wise. True, he has the power of veto. But is that a wise power? By it one man can block the will of the majority."

The speaker then declared himself as being strongly for the managerial form, declaring that a commission form would prove too expensive for a city the size of Glendale. He also read a clipping from an Ohio newspaper in which was told the saving a city manager had made in a municipality's conduct.

Municipal Ownership

President Stephenson then pointed out the provision in the proposed charter which permits the city liberal powers in municipal ownership, to define and abate nuisances, to adopt a building ordinance, to adopt a zoning ordinance, to use, if necessary, the initiative, referendum and recall, and to amend the charter if any provision did not work satisfactorily to the majority of the people.

"The charter gives us absolute home rule," he declared, "subject, of course, to the constitution of the state and the nation.

"Under the charter, salaries will remain as they now are, except the pay of the councilmen is raised from $5 to $10 a meeting, the limit being $60 a month. Also, there is a provision for a comptroller.

"Further, the charter provides the city may do its own public work. That provision will save the city a lot of money on street work. No wonder contractors are opposed to the charter. I would oppose it, too, if I were a contractor.

About City Manager

"The provisions regarding the city manager are strict. He cannot proceed unless he has the approval of the councilmen."

"Who has the power to fire the city manager?" inquired F. A. Clarke.

"The council," answered President Stephenson.

"Who fires the councilmen?" questioned A. H. Chapman.

"The people, the recall is in the charter," was the speaker's answer.

"Further, if this charter is adopted, every city employe will be out of a job, myself included," continued President Stephenson. "So, if you folks want a municipal housecleaning, vote for the charter. That's something, isn't it?

"If any of the present elective officers want to get back, they must run for the office; if any of the appointees want their places again, they must file their applications. The charter provides the means of a complete clean out."

No "Jokers" Are Found

President Stephenson said that, as a lawyer, he had studied the proposed charter and could find no "jokers" in it. He declared it was a well drawn document and all of the provisions were plain.

Frank Booth asked if the charter would increase expenses. The answer was that it would not, except in the case of a slight increase in pay for the councilmen and the salary of the comptroller.

Bert P. Woodard, chairman of the board of freeholders which drew the charter, confirmed statements made by President Stephenson.

R. S. Person objected to the provisions of the charter in regard to city planning — the zoning section. He declared:

"The council will consist of five members and:

"1—A 'zoning' ordinance may be enacted by three affirmative votes regardless of the wishes of owners of property directly affected thereby. Likewise, by a bare majority vote of the council, acting on its own initiative, may 'amend, supplement or change the regulations and districts established by any' such ordinance; but,

"2—If a majority—or even all—of the owners of a district petition the council for a modification of the restrictions imposed by ordinance duly enacted, it will require four affirmative votes of the council to effect the desired modification; and:

"3—If 20 per cent of the owners of frontage 'immediately adjacent' to the property to be affected by the modification desired by eighty per cent, protest against such modification, it will require the unanimous vote of the council to effect the modification; and:

"4—New parties, not owners of frontage in the zone and not even owners of any property in the zone, but 'across the street,' together with one member of the council may veto any modification sought by not only a large majority of owners of frontage in the district but by all such owners in the district. It would be even possible in easily conceivable circumstances for one person outside the zone and one member of the council to prevent such modification."

Answered by Mr. Woodard

President Stephenson checked up Mr. Person's statement with the charter provisions and declared it had been correctly stated and Mr. Woodard declared:

"Zoning is one of the most important things in the proposed charter and a power which cannot now be effectively exercised under the present form of government.

"The council cannot, of its own motion, amend the ordinance, nor can it be amended in any other way than by a four-fifths vote of the council or by a referendum.

"When a zoning ordinance is once established, it is more difficult to amend than it was to enact in the first place. Why? Because a zoning ordinance is the right way to build a city. Consequently, when such an ordinance is passed after mature deliberation, it should not be subjected easily to persons with political pulls or tinkered with by people with influence. After it is passed it should stand unless changed by four-fifths of the council or by referendum. Constructive work should not be upset by politics or by influence."

"At present, my mind is made up to vote against the charter because of the iron clad provisions of Article XV., Section 1," Mr. Person declared.

"Why not consider the charter as a whole and vote for it because it gives us home rule?" suggested President Stephenson.

Mr. Woodard pointed out that the

FIGURES ON WATER BONDS GIVEN BY CITY MANAGER

REPORT SUBMITTED TO BOARD OF TRUSTEES IS AGAIN PROVIDED PUBLIC

Under the date of February 3, T. W. Watson, city manager, reported to the Board of City Trustees relative to the amounts spent or authorized to be spent out of the $260,000 bond issue, the report being given in The Evening News.

The city manager says that the report includes all improvements for which contracts have been let or materials purchased and city departments authorized to do the work. He states these figures are substantially correct; but may vary slightly as to the amount of some items as exact figures cannot be obtained at this time. They indicate, however, in a general way, how matters stand with regard to these expenditures to date, he says.

Figures Are Submitted

The figures are submitted as follows:

Second pumping unit at San Fernando pumping plant	$ 33,300.00
Large reservoir at entrance to Verdugo Canyon	70,624.65
Thirty-inch trunk line on Glendale avenue	44,149.30
Estimated cost of pavement replacement	2,000.00
Engineering on account of wells in Verdugo Canyon	163.15
Sixteen-inch pressure main on Grand View avenue	33,000.00
Grand View reservoir pipe line on Vine street and small pumping plant	31,575.34
Engineering in preparation for pipe line on Mariposa avenue and Acacia street	104.20
Cast iron pipe for Sycamore Canyon Road	18,622.20
Miscellaneous expenditures including bond election expense, printing of bonds, bond attorney's fees, etc.	1,492.73
Total	$235,031.57
Unappropriated	20,968.43
Unsold bonds	4,000.00
	$260,000.00

Not All Are Completed

In the city manager's report, which was published in The Evening News several weeks ago, he stated:

"Increase in the costs of these improvements has made it impossible to complete all of the projects set forth in the circulars issued by the Board of Trustees, September 4, 1919. The main object for which the $260,000 bond issue was authorized, however, has been attained in that when the improvements set forth above are all installed, which will be within the next three or four months, an abundant supply of water will be assured the city of Glendale, both for present and immediate future needs.

"The development works in Verdugo canyon, consisting of wells and pumping plants to take the water from the subterranean flow and thus maintain its natural purity, together with a reservoir and a twenty-inch pressure main extending from the center of the canyon to the main reservoir at the entrance of Verdugo canyon will cost as set forth in Engineer H. B. Lynch's estimate of September 30, 1920, $93,000. An additional bond issue will, no doubt, be required in the near future before the above mentioned project of the improvements contemplated under the $260,0000 bond issue can be installed."

WRAPPING MACHINE IS INSTALLED BY DR. HARROWER

UNIQUE APPARATUS IS BEING USED; LABORATORY LEADS GLENDALE INDUSTRIES

A Sanitape wrapping machine, said to be the only one of its kind installed on the Pacific coast, started operating today at the Harrower Laboratory. W. S. Muzzey of Newark, N. J., assisted in the installation of the apparatus, which is unique in that it automatically wraps in paraffine strips of paper the tablets of the glandular preparations made at the laboratory. The packages of twenty pellets are sealed and ready for packing and shipping without the touch of human hands at the rate of 100,000 a day.

This is made possible by hoppers which feed them from the rotary tablet-making machine with a capacity of a quarter of a million in an eight-hour day. Both machines are located at the new building at 920 East Broadway.

Grows to Large Industry

When the machinery now installed is found to be working satisfactorily an "open house" will be held in order that the process may be seen by interested citizens, as the Harrower Laboratory, of which Dr. Henry Harrower is principal, has grown from three employes to an industry with seventy persons on its local payroll, which is the largest of all local enterprises, it is believed.

E. A. Macdonald of 704 East Chestnut street, who has been employed in the offices here, leaves April 4 for Dallas, Texas., where he will open the fifth branch of the Harrower Laboratory in this country. His wife and two children will accompany him to the southern city.

The Advantages of Buying "Preferred" Stock

You know definitely in advance, when you buy the Preferred Stock of Los Angeles Gas and Electric Corporation, that every share you hold will pay better than 7 per cent on your actual investment, and that you will receive your dividends regularly on each quarterly dividend payment date.

The fact that this Preferred Stock has priority over Common Stock, both as to dividends and assets, conclusively establishes the security of your investment, for back of the Preferred Stock stands the entire responsibility of the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Corporation with its conservative plant valuation of $25,798,860.

Every share of Preferred Stock represents a first or prior liability against the assets of the Corporation.

The same is true as regards dividends. Six per cent on par—which is more than 7 per cent on the amount invested—must be paid on every share of Preferred Stock before any dividends can be paid on Common Stock. It should further be considered that while you can buy this stock today at $85.00 per share, it has an inherent value of $100.00 as compared with other investments of comparative security.

All proceeds derived from the sale of this stock must be used for betterments and additions to plant. This means increased revenue and consequently added surplus for the payment of dividends.

The investment is an unusually attractive one to the man or woman of limited means who desires liberal earning capacity on a small investment that is totally free from speculative element.

Germany Is Asking More Conferences

BERLIN, March 23. — More conferences with the allies were demanded by Germany today to arrange for indemnity payments. The Berlin government sent a note to the allied reparations commission which stated that Germany cannot pay the billion marks required today.

There was some anxiety in official circles. While the reparations note setting March 23 as the date for the initial payment was not regarded as an ultimatum, it was sharp and definite. Some advisers of the government feared that Germany was showing herself too much inclined to obstruct a final settlement and that serious trouble might result.

Nevertheless financial experts in Berlin declared flatly that the sum named by the commission is not available. To attempt so large a payment would wreck the financial system of the country and precipitate further industrial troubles, they declared.

At the same time this class was the most worried over the possibility that the allies may decide to inflict further penalties. It was known the French were incensed at the German attitude.

There was hope here that the allied commission would reach a decision today and notify Germany whether the matter is open for discussion.

Americans Sentenced To German Prison

MOSBACH, Germany, March 23.—Two American detectives connected with United States military forces were sentenced today to serve terms in a German prison.

They were convicted in a German court on the evidence of German witnesses of attempting to kidnap Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, American slacker.

Carl Neaf and Franz Zimmer, the detectives, were charged with illegally assuming the power of police officers. Neaf was sentenced to fifteen months' imprisonment on the additional charge that he shot and wounded a German girl in Bergdoll's car. Zimmer was given six months.

The men were defended by lawyers hired by the American Legion.

Bergdoll himself was a witness. He told a halting story and so clearly contradicted himself that the presiding judge finally warned him of the strictness of the German perjury laws. While the American draft dodger was on the stand the hostility of the crowd toward the two detectives was shown by its remarks.

Hisses were frequent and officers of the court made little effort to quell the demonstrations.

Chevrolet Sales Record

THE production schedule of Chevrolet "Four-Ninety" Models for the seven months from January 1st to July 31st, 1921, is fifty thousand cars.

To each retail purchaser of a new Model "Four-Ninety" car at present list prices, we will make the following cash payments—"Four-Ninety" Touring $70; "Four-Ninety" Roadster $70; "Four Ninety" Light Delivery Wagon $70; "Four-Ninety" Chassis $70; "Four-Ninety" Coupe $100; "Four-Ninety" Sedan $100; provided the Chevrolet Motor Companies manufacture and sell fifty thousand new Chevrolet Model "Four-Ninety" cars between January 1st, 1921, and July 31st, 1921. This offer to be subject to the terms as set forth in full in the refund certificate which will be delivered to each purchaser.

This refund represents savings in material prices under present readjusted conditions, which savings can be made provided Chevrolet factories continue to operate on the estimated average quantity production basis.

Fifty thousand cars is the minimum which Chevrolet engineers estimate will secure substantial savings in cost in manufacture. These savings will be passed on to the purchasers of these fifty thousand cars.

Each purchaser of a Model "Four-Ninety" will receive a certificate from his dealer, or from the Chevrolet retail store manager. This certificate will be redeemed as indicated on its face.

Retail purchasers of Model "Four-Ninety" cars since October 1st, 1920, will receive their certificates through their local dealers or retail stores on application to them.

Production results will be announced not later than August 10th, 1921. Certificates will be subject to payment according to their terms, thereafter, up to September 15th, 1921.

Makes Comparison On Charity Costs

Southern California is called upon to take care of a very large number of indigents who need assistance to carry them over during periods of idleness or sickness, and it is the common expression that Los Angeles county is burdened with more of this class of charity than any other section of the world.

As a matter of comparison, Supervisor Jonathan S. Dodge has tabulated the cost of the total relief and expense per capita for the care of indigent patients who are served by the outdoor relief division of the department of charities. It would seem from these figures that San Francisco spends something over $409,000 for this purpose, Alameda county, $193,000 and Los Angeles county something over $327,000. These sums are exclusive of the aid that is furnished by the state of California.

By comparison, according to the population, it would be found that the amount furnished in San Francisco would be equal to 81 cents per capita, in Alameda 56 cents per capita, and in Los Angeles only 35 cents per capita. Looking into the matter a little further, it would be found that the expense for this class of charity in the city and county of Los Angeles is only 43 per cent of the amount expended in San Francisco, and 63 per cent of the amount expended in Alameda county.

It will be understood that the amount allowed in the budget for outdoor relief is only a portion of the large sum that is expended by Los Angeles county in the care and treatment of those who are subjects of charity.

Pauline Frederick Is Feature At Glendale

In the opinion of critics, Miss Pauline Frederick, the foremost emotional actress of the screen, is at her best in "A Slave of Vanity," the Robertson-Cole super-special which opened yesterday at the Glendale Theatre and is to be seen again today. The picture is a film version of "Iris," the famous drama written several years ago by Sir Arthur Wing Pinero and produced in England and America.

The story of "A Slave of Vanity" tells of a beautiful young widow who loses all of the wealth left her by her husband if she remarries. She has always been used to luxury and affluence and when a young man of small means pleads for her hand, she is afraid to step from her gilded throne to the humble atmosphere which his income calls for. She is forced to admit she loves him but is afraid she will be dissatisfied and make him unhappy. The young man goes away to make a fortune and she promises to wait. What transpires in the meantime is highly interesting and makes a delightful picture.

"Old Black Joe," as played by Madame Clement elicited memories of the music of olden days for those attending yesterday. It will be the feature organ number again tonight. Pathe News and a comedy round out the bill.

Airship Will Carry 65 On Trial Trip

ROME—Members of the American air mission will take the airship Roma, recently sold to the United States by Italy, on a long trial trip before dismantling the craft preparatory to shipping it to America. It will have a party of distinguished guests during the flight. It will include the crown princess of Denmark, Robert Underwood Johnson, United States ambassador, and the commanding officer of the Italian aeronautic service. The party will number about sixty-five.

The Roma will cruise over the Mediterranean for some distance and return to the coast to circle about Mount Vesuvius and it is planned to soar above the peaks of the Apennines.

Railroad Men Not To Take Deep Cut

SAN FRANCISCO, March 23.—That the unskilled employees of the Western Pacific railroad may accept a slight cut in wages was indicated today when a representative of the men who is now conferring with the company officials said that he had offered a compromise agreement but that it had been rejected by the company officials.

This man, who refused to allow his name to be used, said that no cut as drastic as that proposed by the railroad would ever be accepted by the men.

"They'll strike first," he said.

While E. W. Mason, representing the Western Pacific in the negotiations, and his assistants refused to make a statement, it was apparent that the road will hold out for the reduction specified in the original announcement.

"The only thing that can avert a strike," said one prominent railroad official here today, "is for the new administration to take over the roads again or for congress to empower the railway labor board to prevent strikes by executive order."

The conference between the officials and employees met yesterday but failed to come to any agreement after a long session. They are meeting again today.

The Southern Pacific and its employees will confer over a similar wage cut early next month. Owing to close relations between both the railroad companies and the employees of both companies, much significance was attached to the Western Pacific negotiations as affecting the Southern Pacific situation.

England Establishes Contact With Russia

LONDON, March 23.—Great Britain proceeded today to establish contact with soviet Russia.

A commissioner will be sent to Moscow at once, it was announced, to make preliminary arrangements for the opening of trade under the new agreement.

With this start, Great Britain threw off some of its dread of bolshevism. Aiding this process was the first statement Premier Lloyd George has made in defense of his recognition of the soviets as the de facto government in Russia. The premier in commons last night made it clear that his information shows a great change is taking place in the beliefs of the communist leaders. He declared it was certain that Lenine and his associates now realize a state cannot be run on the theories of Karl Marx.

Despite these official assurances, there was a widespread belief that Lenine is not abrogating his ideas. It was pointed out that the official text of his speech before the communist party in Russia was filled with strong qualifications and that the premier stressed the fact that any expedients adopted now are but temporary.

It was pointed out that Lenine heretofore has shown a tendency to compromise his communistic beliefs in order to get results from the rest of the world which still is on a capitalistic basis.

Bolshevik newspapers received here advocate the acceptance of foreign capital to build up impoverished industries. They approved the premier's proposals for a lessening of bolshevik restrictions, but declared there were better reasons than he advanced for admitting foreign capital.

Trustees' President Tells About Charter

charter could be amended if discovered to be faulty.

"The provisions of the charter on the city manager give him the powers of a king," declared Mr. Booth.

A. H. Lapham, recently appointed city trustee, laughingly said:

"Since I went on the Board of City Trustees I have, for the first time in my life, been called a crook."

"That's nothing," said President Stephenson, "for I've been on the board long enough to have been called that three times."

Praise for Employes

Speaking seriously, President Stephenson paid a tribute to the city employes. He said that when he first went on the board he was of the belief that city employes loafed half the time. Investigation, however, showed him, he said, that Glendale has a very efficient force of employes which works harder than employes for corporations and for less money.

"Our water department is an example of this," he said. "There we have a half-million dollar investment that has not cost you a cent. All employes are doing splendidly. I believe that when an employe is doing good work he should be told so. When a city employe makes good, let him know it."

The speaker's remarks were applauded. Several persons in the audience seeking information on various provisions of the city were answered by President Stephenson and he urged that people forget what they may consider defects in the proposed charter, remember that it is a basis for home rule and vote for it, with the understanding that it may be amended if necessary.

Now a traveler traversing the same country finds numerous abandoned automobiles, some overturned, some buried, others smashed and looted.

'Hutch' Found Guilty

"Big Hutch" is convicted! For years he has been trailed as one of the cleverest confidence men in the country. All of the detective agencies, all of the police departments and other guardians of the law, were on his trail. Now through the efforts of Malcolm McLaren of Glendale, who is chief of District Attorney Woolwine's "bunko" squad, "Big Hutch" was brought back from New York for trial which resulted in his conviction.

This Pie Loaded

Jailer John Shand at the county jail has a taste for pies.

When Mrs. Emma Moreno, sister of Peter Cisneros, brought in a beautifully baked appetizer for her brother, John gives it the once-over and says to himself: "That's apple, the kind mother used to make."

So Peter and John divided the pie with the jailer getting a mouthful of morphine. All of which led Mrs. Moreno to jail also.

Loses Damage Suit

Lillian Eva Jarrett lost a $5436 damage suit against the Los Angeles Railway company for injuries she alleged she received, because the street car detectives got busy and under the guise of hiring her for motion pictures produced film in court showing that she could dance and do other things which she denied.

Boy Scouts and forest rangers have joined in the search. They were to join a party of Y. W. C. A. hikers for a week-end trip in the Arroyo Seco.

New Regulations Upon Prohibition

WASHINGTON, March 23.—Principal provisions of the new regulations carrying into effect the ruling of former Attorney General Palmer that manufacture and sale of beer as medicine is not illegal were learned today by the United Press. They are:

That a doctor may prescribe four and seven-eighths gallons of beer for each ailing patient every thirty days.

That a doctor must find a good and sufficient reason for prescribing beer; that he must not prescribe the maximum more often than every thirty days, but he is not limited as to the number of patients for whom he may prescribe.

That manufacture of real beer cannot be carried on in the same plants used for manufacture of near beer—the kind containing less than one-half of one per cent of alcohol.

That breweries may sell only to wholesale druggists, who in turn sell to retail druggists, who must have permits to deal in real beer.

The regulations as outlined were drawn under the direction of Internal Revenue Commissioner William M. Williams, a democratic appointee. Secretary of the Treasury Mellon must approve them, and it was said he was reluctant to do so until they are reviewed by a republican internal revenue commissioner. President Harding has let it be known he will not hurry about appointing a commissioner.

The new commissioner, when he takes office, may approve the present tentative regulations or he may order new ones drawn.

NOTED FOR EMBROIDERY

St. Gall, Switzerland, is the noted embroidery seat of modern days, and one of the most influential centers of Christian civilization in Central Europe. The city owes its foundation to the Irish apostle Gallus, who in the year 614 founded a hermitage near the brook Steinach. In the resulting monastery of St. Gall the strict rules of the Irish church were enforced until 720, when those of St. Benedict were substituted by an abbot, Othmar.

In 1061 the abbot Norpert of St. Gall erected a convent on the Sitter river, the place taking the name of Abbatis Cella-Appenzell, and the abbots of St. Gall became the dominating influence of the land until the subsequently much impressed mountaineers resorted to force and succeeded in shaking off their yoke.

Dancing Teacher In Short Skirt Is Also In Jail; Uses Fists

LOS ANGELES, March 23.—"Gee whiz, can you beat it?" pouted pretty Pearl Hill, 20, a Salt Lake City dancing teacher, held in the city jail today on a charge of disturbing the peace.

"Here I am in a cell just because someone thought my dress was too short."

Miss Hill was arrested last night after she had planted a haymaker on the jaw of a woman attendant in a dancehall who accused her of wearing her skirts too short. It required three policemen to lock her up.

"Why, hundreds of girls wear 'em shorter than I," she declared. "Back in Salt Lake no one ever criticized the length of my clothes. That woman made me so mad that I couldn't resist slapping her face. Me for Salt Lake when I get out of this mess. Los Angeles is a wonderful place—to keep away from."

Frank O. Lowden Is Charter Day Speaker

BERKELEY, Cal., March 23.—Frank O. Lowden, former governor of Illinois, principal speaker at the University of California charter day exercises today, declared in an address in the Greek theatre "that the rapid movement toward centralization at Washington must be checked or the value of the federal principle will be dissipated forever."

"The federal government tends more and more to encroach on the just prerogatives of the state," he said. "Bureaucracy at Washington is always alert to extend its power.

"During the great war the federal government undertook to do many things which formerly were done by the states. The bureaucracies are now loath to give up their power. So the bureaucries now seek to gain by bribes what they failed to gain by other means. They seek to salve the wounded pride of the states by offers of large federal appropriations.

"Propaganda is now being carried on day by day, under the guise of liberal contributions to the state, which will result in taking from the federal treasury hundreds of millions of dollars for objects which must remain the care of the state if the state is to remain an entity in our national system."

Seeks Settlers For Many Acres Of Land

DENVER—To give practical impetus to his great desire to see the three million acres of tillable land in Colorado made available to homesteaders, Colonel Henry C. Watson of Kearney, Neb., wants to leave his estate, valued at close to $250,000, to the state of Colorado.

The state senate has already passed a measure authorizing the state treasurer to accept a legacy such as Watson proposes. The house is expected to take action soon.

Colonel Watson, farmer, economist, philanthropist, treeologist and specialist in growing alfalfa, addressed a joint session of the Colorado legislature here to explain his reasons for framing the unique will which will leave his fortune to the Centennial state.

In his address Colonel Watson emphasized that the outstanding condition of the will provides that the money will be loaned in $1000 amounts to homesteaders.

"I think it would mark an epoch in the history of the west if I could help you get farmers to working on your three million acres of school lands," he said.

Colonel Watson's community farm at Kearney, Neb., has attracted attention of economists throughout the country. He has farmed in Nebraska for more than thirty years and owns five hundred acres surrounding Kearney. He is said to have spent $40,000 in planting trees in the vicinity of his estate.

Prices Going Up On Stock Market

NEW YORK, March 23.—The upward trend of prices on the New York stock exchange continued during early trading today. The list generally was firm at the opening.

Automobile and tire shares were in demand and shortly after the opening Pierce Arrow made a new high for the year at 33⅞; Kelly Springfield gained a full point at 43.

Interest in local traction prices was stimulated by the passing of Governor Miller's traction program by the state legislature. Manhattan railway was up 2⅜ at 55; Brooklyn Transit certificates were up ¼ at 9¼; Interborough up ¼ at 5¼, the preferred up ⅜ at 16 and Third avenue up ¼ at 20.

REASONS ADVANCED FOR ELECTION OF TWO TRUSTEES

WRITER TELLS WHY CITIZENS' CANDIDATE SHOULD GET SUPPORT OF VOTERS

Editor The Evening News—The fact that there are four candidates in the field for the two positions as trustee of the high school is perfectly proper. The fact that two of the candidates were proposed by a group of citizens through the regular channels and duly announced was very much in order and according to custom. The fact that the other two gentlemen should have been proposed later by other citizens would have been entirely in order and customary, but that they were proposed by and are being strongly advanced in a thoroughly political manner by a prominent church organization is, to my mind, neither in order, nor is it customary or American.

The public school was conceived independent of church domination or influence and it has always resisted and repelled any attempted encroachment.

Notwithstanding my friendship and respect for the candidates advanced by the Federated Brotherhood and for many of its members with whom I am acquainted, I do not hesitate to state that I believe the Brotherhood has overstepped the limits of its province in entering a public school election campaign as an organization.

If Others Made Attempt

Let us be consistent. What would happen should certain other religious organizations make a similar attempt?

Why this great effort upon the part of the Brotherhood to defeat such estimable men as Messrs. Chandler and Phelon; men who have been respected citizens of Glendale for many years; men who have the practical, permanent welfare of our young people at heart, and men who have due appreciation for the need of wise economy consistent with the greatest educational advancement? For whom and for what is the effort being made?

I wish it distinctly understood that I am not against the church, for I recognize its place in our civilization and its need for those who need it. But just as clearly as I recognize it in its place, just so clearly do I recognize it out of place. Its province is precept, not power; persuasion, not compulsion; usefulness, not "blue laws."

I am not against the opposition candidates, who are estimable gentlemen, but I am strongly in favor of Mr. Chandler and Mr. Phelon, who are independent of any organization, political, church or fraternal, and who have a well defined, constructive policy.

I believe they will, if elected, prove a decided help to the carried-over members of the board in the important problems before us and I look for harmony and progress.

Let us help elect Chandler and Phelon, Friday, March 25.

Famous Farce Comedy Palace Grand Picture

Fun and more fun is the program at the Palace Grand tonight with the famous farce comedy, "Officer 666," as the feature.

It is a Samuel Goldwyn presentation of Tom Moore in the Cohan and Harris stage success in which the "cops" play such havoc as to give rise to the risibilities.

Just to say that Winchell Smith had a part in putting the story together is enough to insure its dramatic qualities and the possibilities presented in its filming makes the photoplay superior, it is said, to the spoken drama.

"High and Dry," the mermaid's latest two-part comedy offering, adds a lot more laughs to the entertainment and with the cartoons and other pictures, the Palace Grand should be packed.

Nils Gilliam, director of the orchestra, promises an especially jazzy program with "A Dream" as the overture. "Miss Trombone," "Mello Cello" and "Moonbeams" are other numbers that will offer pleasing solo parts.

Canada Reduces Its Government Budget

OTTAWA — Sir Henry Drayton, minister of finance, has presented to the house of commons the government's estimate of the cost of running the dominion for one year.

The estimated total is $582,062,269, and this covers the main items of expenditure required in the fiscal year beginning April 1. Last year the estimated amount announced by the government was $537,149,428, ando was later increased by supplementary estimates to $621,233,155.

Of this amount which the finance minister estimates as necessary for the coming fiscal year, a total of $178,000,000 is for expenditure in connection with the government railways.

MRS. A. H. HUNTER IS HOSTESS BEHALF OF DAUGHTER

ENTERTAINS AT LUNCHEON AND MUSICAL; GUESTS ENJOY PROGRAM PRESENTED

Mrs. C. A. Hunter of 1159 San Rafael avenue was the hostess last Wednesday afternoon at a delightful musical and buffet luncheon at her home in honor of her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Price of Omaha, who is a soprano soloist of note in that city, having studied five years in Europe. She is presently visiting here and yesterday enjoyed a motor trip through the mountainous country adjacent to Glendale.

Madame Sprotte, a well-known Los Angeles vocal teacher, was also an honored guest while Orrin Padel, Mrs. Price's brother, lent his talent to the afternoon's entertainment. He is a member of the Presbyterian church quartette. About twenty people enjoyed the affair.

Program Proves Pleasing

Mr. Padel, tenor, first sang several solos and was followed by the accompanist, Miss Alice Gray, in a number of piano selections. Madame Sprotte, contralto, then gave a cycle of songs and Mrs. Price concluded with several solos. The two-course luncheon was served the following invited guests by Mrs. Hunter, assisted by the Misses Dorothy Cotton and Marie Oliver:

Mr. and Mrs. John Cotton, Mr. and Mrs. Julius A. Konetzka and daughter Lillian, Mrs. James Calderwood and daughter Griebe, Mrs. Mary J. Oliver, Mrs. Fanny Marple Retts, Mrs. Herman Schultz, Mrs. F. W. Miller and Miss Mabel Noel.

State Corporations Owe License Fees

SACRAMENTO — Not more than 1000 corporations operating in California have been placed on the suspended list this year for the non-payment of the license tax, it was estimated by E. W. Gardiner, superintendent of the corporation license department of the office of Secretary of State Jordan. Last year's suspensions numbered approximately 1500, and seldom in former years, according to Gardiner, has the average fallen below that figure. State authorities assert the showing is indicative of business prosperity.

PRETTY CHINESE LEGEND

One of the prettiest legends of Chinese mythology is that of the weaver girl and the herd laddie who are said to be two stars in the sky. In far-off days Jove took pity on their loneliness and married them. They were so happy in the connubial bliss that they neglected their tasks and were banished to opposite sides of the Milky Way, where they wink at each other all the year round, but are only allowed to cross for a brief spell of happiness on the seventh day of the seventh moon.

On that night shy maidens place a few sticks of incense with some sweets and fruit on a table in the inner courtyard as an offering to the two stars, perhaps with an unexpressed prayer that in their own case the course of true love may run more smoothly than it did for the immortal lovers in the sky.

CHEEKY PROPOSITION

"Lend me $5, will you, old man?"

"Can't do it! I was just going over to Brown's to borrow a five from him."

"Make it ten, and I'll take half of it."

OLD SHOES AT WEDDINGS

The antiquity of the custom of throwing old shoes at weddings may be realized by reference to the Old Testament, where we find that, when the brother of a dead man refused to marry the latter's widow, she indicated her independence by "loosing his shoe."

This, coupled with the fact that it was the custom of savage nations to carry off brides by violence—a proceeding naturally followed by the casting of missiles of various kinds—proves that the connection between old shoes and marriage dates back almost to the dawn of history.

In fact, Urquhart, in his "Pillars of Hercules," states: "At a Jewish marriage I was standing beside the bridegroom when the bride entered. As she crossed the threshold he stooped down, slipped off his shoe, and struck her with the heel on the nape of the neck. I at once saw the interpretation of the passage in Scripture respecting the transfer of the shoe to another. The slipper being taken off indoors, is at hand to administer correction. Hence it is used as a sign of the obedience of the wife and the supremacy of the husband."
